• A description of how the state engaged parent members and individual parents in setting targets, analyzing data, developing improvement strategies, and evaluating progress
  – Parent members may include
    ▪ State Advisory Panel
    ▪ Parent Center staff
    ▪ Parents from local and statewide advocacy and advisory committees
    ▪ Individual parents
The introduction also must include

FFY 2021 Measurement Table Language Clarification

- Indicators 8 & 14: In a state’s analysis about the extent to which the response data are representative of the demographics, removed language about considering race/ethnicity and other demographics; now the state’s analysis must include race/ethnicity and at least one other demographic category approved through the stakeholder input process.

SPP/APR Stakeholder Engagement

Stakeholder engagement should

• Involve a wide variety of stakeholders, including parents and families
• Be meaningful and authentic
• Be an ongoing process to keep stakeholders informed and get their input, feedback, and advice
Analysis of Stakeholder Input/Feedback Data

• Participation
  – Parent members
  – Demographics representation
  – Opportunity versus participation
  – What voices are still needed

• Content
  – Trends
  – Themes
  – Differences
  – What’s missing
Benefits of Stakeholder Engagement

- Increases buy-in
- Identifies needs of state
- Leads to informed individuals and sharing of information
- Builds relationships and trust
- Builds increasing and lasting credibility
- Leads to improved decisionmaking
- Illuminates why this issue (SPP/APR) is important to stakeholders
- Cultivates the habit of collaboration
- Builds stakeholders’ identity as collaborators
Reflection

• Did you receive feedback from OSEP during the clarification period that will affect ongoing stakeholder engagement?

• What strategies are you planning to keep stakeholders involved?
  – Informing them of OSEP feedback
  – Asking for their input on the 2023 submission to include
    ▪ Analyzing data
    ▪ Evaluating progress
    ▪ Planning activities to improve indicator results

• What format of engaging stakeholders worked best for your state?

• How do you plan to continue to engage diverse groups of parents?
Expanding the Diversity of Your Stakeholder Group(s)
Stakeholders to Consider

Stakeholders may include

- State Advisory Panel (SAP) members
- Local special education directors or administrators
- Other state agency personnel
- Business/community representatives
- Parent Training and Information Center representatives
- Advocacy group members
- Students or former students
- Parents/family members
- Others?
Expanding Stakeholders

• Consider collaborating with technical assistance (TA) centers

• Determine strategies for gathering input from a broad group of stakeholders
  – One large group that addresses all indicators
  – Multiple groups that address all indicators
  – Groups set up by content and indicators
  – Existing stakeholder groups

• Identify stakeholder groups, individuals, and role(s) you need
  – Determine the diverse parent groups and other groups that you need to consider
  – Identify parent members within each existing stakeholder group and solicit additional parents as needed
  – Review indicators and determine who might provide relevant and needed input and feedback (e.g., Indicator 6: preschool parent, Indicator 14: local business or chamber of commerce representative)

- Levels of stakeholder engagement
  - Core team—work groups
  - Advisory
  - Larger stakeholder group
  - Extended partners

• Ensure all areas/roles are represented (i.e., ask who is not at the table?)

• Consider
  – Advocacy and parent groups of disability-specific areas
  – Educator groups
  – Community organizations
  – Existing stakeholder groups that can have an additional focus

• Ensure equity in representation, engagement, and access
  – Consider geographic location, gender, race/ethnicity, disability categories, age of children represented, socioeconomic and other factors
  – Make sure multiple ways to engage are available: written, oral, survey
  – Allow for virtual, face-to-face, or hybrid mechanisms to access the opportunities
Discussion—Share Examples of Strategies for Engagement

• Are there other stakeholders that you engage with?
• What are the strategies for engaging stakeholders you have used or are planning to use to ensure representativeness?
• How are you reaching underrepresented parents?

Decide on Communication Strategies
Communicating Results of Input and Decisions

Pre-submission

- Determine communication strategy to follow up with stakeholders
- Provide summary of input, analysis, and state rationale for proposed target and other decisions
- Consider whether you need further public input, and develop mechanism and deadline (collect and analyze)

Post SPP/APR submission

- Communicate OSEP’s response to proposed targets and the SPP/APR
- Address any OSEP-required actions if needed
- Determine communication method to inform stakeholders and public on progress toward targets
Communicating With Stakeholders

Informing
Sharing or disseminating information

Networking
Asking others what they think about this issue and listening to what they say

Collaborating
Working jointly with others toward a common goal

Transforming
Doing things the “partnership way” (consensus building)
